Privacy Policy Statement

www.myeduwebsite.com is committed to protecting your privacy.

We abide by the Data Protection Acts to protect information about our clients.

By using www.myeduwebsite.com, you consent to the collection and use of information by www.myeduwebsite.com, as described below:

Your login information is kept strictly confidential, and is not shared with any third parties/companies. We do not, at any time, store or hold your credit card information on our servers. All payment transactions (memberships, subscriptions and other shop items) take place using PayPal for your complete piece of mind and protection.

We will not give, sell, rent or lease any personally identifiable information you choose to give www.myeduwebsite.com to any other company. We will only share the personal data you provide online with www.myeduwebsite.com managers or employees and/or our business partners where appropriate unless we have your express permission, or are required to by law.

www.myeduwebsite.com may use the information we collect to notify you about important changes to www.myeduwebsite.com, or about new services and special offers we think you'll find valuable. To opt out from receiving such information from us please email us at info@learntowriteproposals.com. You can opt out of our newsletter on the newsletter page on www.learntowriteproposals.com.

We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our Web site. Like most web servers, ours stores your IP address in a log file when you visit the site. This information is for internal use only, and will not be given out.

Under the Data Protection Act, you have the right to access the personal information that we have registered about you. You have a right to request that the information is corrected or deleted if the information is inaccurate, incomplete or irrelevant.

For more information, please email us at info@myeduwebsite.com.

We will publish any changes to this policy on our website to make sure that you always know how we use personal information.
